To Whom It May Concern,

I'm writing this letter in recommendation of Mr. Joshua Sucherman. It has been my pleasure to work with him as he has served in the capacity of an art teacher and team leader in the Riverview Gardens School District for the past nine years.

Through every aspect of his job, Joshua is child-centered. In his role as an educator, he has dealt with many aspects of instruction and lesson designs. He uses great resourcefulness and initiative to achieve success with all students. When dealing with the individual needs of students, he takes a team approach to helping them be successful.

As an educator he is extremely knowledgeable in today's pedagogy, whether it's Differentiated Instruction or Depth of Knowledge. He uses this knowledge to improve student achievement and advance colleagues' instruction. Mr. Sucherman works diligently with others to improve instruction for all students. He is a champion for increasing student achievement through methods that are proven to work. He is very capable of building on people's strength and producing growth where there is a concern.

Joshua is a team-player, and has displayed leadership qualities through his participation on school wide committees. He is extremely organized and pays a great deal of attention to details. Mr. Sucherman is greatly respected by his students and colleagues. His peers seek his advice for dealing with academically and behavioral challenged students.

With these and many other admirable qualities, Joshua would be an excellent member of any school staff. He is a dynamic individual and is able to motivate both students and peers. He is organized and forward thinking. He is positive and believes anything can be accomplished. I highly recommend him for a position within your district.
